New York City Marathon
 and Support the ASPCA

Greetings Fans!

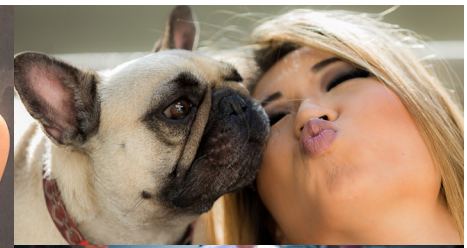

I am a New York girl, I love The City. In 2013 I ran the NYCM with little prep and a horrible time. Just over a year ago I began serious CrossFit training and recently completed 4 Spartan races including the grueling Hawaii Beast. I adore animals and my own menagerie consists four dogs, two cats, and a turtle.

Getting in to the race is not easy, but If I can raise at least $3500 for the ASPCA, I will get an entry for this years race! Combining my love of fitness and supporting the great work of the ASPCA. Please help! You can donate and get me entered by going to:
